

Opening: PeaceCamp Manager, Kakheti (Georgia)

The German non-profit organization Corridors - Dialogue through Cooperation, is looking for a new team member from 01.12.2023.

The Manager will coordinate the set-up and construction, management, and further development of our new PeaceCamp in Kakheti (Georgia). The Corridors Peace Camp is an exciting project that will create a sustainable workshop, retreat, and peace community center in the village of Gremi. The camp is created in close collaboration with regional project partners, rural communities and shall develop into an incubator for meaningful exchange, peace-related action, and conflict-related knowledge production. Our PeaceCamp will have the capacity to host 30 people and includes glamping tents and a seminar building.

We are seeking an experienced professional with proven track record in managing complex processes, with profound problem-solving skills, and experience in the hospitality and seminar business.

The three main responsibilities of the position are:

- Coordinating the construction and shaping of the PeaceCamp in Gremi.
- Developing and implementing efficient systems to operate seminar and hospitality activities.
- Organizing workshops, trainings and promoting and managing a social hospitality business.

The selected person will cooperate with a wide range of stakeholders, including local partners, services providers, workshop participants and overnight guests. Ideally, he/she has good knowledge of the local context in Kakheti and a robust network on the ground.

The position offers the unique opportunity to shape and further develop a community and peace driven space, which is embedded in beautiful nature. It also provides extensive opportunities to develop own initiatives that align with Corridors mission and vision.

About the organization:

Corridors contributes to peacebuilding efforts in the South Caucasus and Eastern Europe by tackling root causes of conflict. We support people from the grassroots to the policy level and build mutual understanding through dialogue over the divide. The German NGO develops and implements participatory and holistic peace education and capacity building processes. We support the deconstruction of enemy images and build positive relations through joint learning and interest-driven cooperation. It is our understanding that transforming protracted conflicts cannot take place without the meaningful inclusions of diverse actors. Empowering and connecting these people to become agents of change, overcome trauma, and prepare their societies for peace are key organization objectives.

Requirements:

- Passion to develop, shape, and lead a social and peace driven glamping camp and seminar space in Kakheti.
- Experience in the hospitality business in Georgia and preferably in Kakheti.
- Experience in setting-up a hospitality business including procurement, coordination and supervision of related service, and design.
- Experience in project coordination and in planning and implementation of workshops, trainings, and retreats.
- Ability to work independently and in a small team with intercultural competence and conflict sensitivity.
- Proactive work attitude with an eye for details and profound problem-solving skills.
- Georgian native speaker and very good English language skills required. German skills are an asset.
- Willingness to work primarily in Kakheti, especially between April and October.

We offer:

- The opportunity to work in an interesting and meaningful international context and to shape a unique project.
- A versatile job with room for setting your own priorities.
- Work in an international and inspiring team with flat hierarchies.
- Fair compensation according to qualification

The position is initially until the end of 2024 and planned with 30 hours/week on average. A long-term cooperation and gradual increase of the position is explicitly envisioned.

We look forward to receiving your application (CV, motivation letter, supporting documents) in one PDF, stating your salary expectation, by 26.11.2023 to relitz@opencorridors.de.
